CWHL CHAMPIONS

The Brampton Canadettes Thunder won the inaugural Canadian Women's Hockey League playoff championship. Rookie defender Molly Engstrom scored the winning goal with just 2:50 left in the first overtime period, giving the Canadettes Thunder a 4-3 victory over the Mississauga Chiefs.

Lori Dupuis, who scored a goal and two assists, was named the championship game MVP. Dupuis scored an assist on Engstrom's winning goal.

After Dupuis assisted on Jayna Hefford's opening goal, the Mississauga Chiefs knotted the score 1-1 late in the first period. It was Jennifer Botterill's league-leading fifth goal of the playoffs.

Just over three minutes into the second period, Dupuis made it 2-1 with a shorthanded goal for the Canadettes Thunder. Brampton couldn't hold its lead, though, as Botterill scored a power-play goal just 36 seconds later. Brampton's penalty problems continued and Chiefs' captain Sommer West made it 3-2 later in the second period.

Midway through the third period, it was Brampton's captain Vicky Sunohara's turn to hit the red light. With 8:51 to play, the championship final was tied 3-3.

The tie lasted until late into overtime before Engstrom marked the winner.

The playoff win capped off a terrific first season in the new CWHL. Brampton was also Central Division champions in the regular season. The Brampton lineup featured three of the league's top-10 scorers - including MVP Jayna Hefford - as well as goaltending tandem Mandy Cronin (most wins) and Cindy Eadie (best GAA).

In the championship final, it was Eadie making 23 saves in 67 minutes for the win. Sarah Love was in goal for the Chiefs until suffering an injury with just 5:12 left in the third period. Rookie Megan Takeda was called in to make his CWHL debut for the final minutes plus the overtime. Takeda made 13 saves before getting beat for the winner.

The championship final was played at the Brampton Powerade Centre in Brampton, ON on 22 March 2008. The final was also broadcast live on the league's website, www.CWHL.ca.

The new CWHL championship trophy was presented to the Brampton captain and alternate captains. It was the quartet's second-straight championship victory, having won the final NWHL playoff title one year earlier.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

The Brampton Canadettes Thunder's Jayna Hefford was the Canadian Women's Hockey League Most Valuable Player in the 2007-08 season. The 30-year old star forward paced the league with 26 goals in 27 games as the Canadettes Thunder finished first in the Central Division.

Hefford was hot straight out of the gate, setting a league single-game record of six points in the opening week-end: a 7-0 win over the Burlington Barracudas on 16 September. She was the only player to match her record, notching another six points in a 7-1 win over the Stars de Montréal on 26 January.

A year-end Central All-Star, Hefford was the monthly Top Scorer in three of the season's six months: September, December and January. She finished the season second in scoring with 58 points.

Hefford owns quite the résumé in women's leagues hockey. Her career goes back to the Central Ontario Women's Hockey League when she was a goal-per-game producer for the old Mississauga Chiefs.

In 1998-99, Hefford joined the Brampton Thunder in what would be the inaugural season of the National Women's Hockey League. Over the course of the league's nine-year history, she set all-time records of 247 goals and 412 points, all in spite of missing two seasons when she was busy winning Olympic gold medals with Canada's national team. She set the NWHL single-season record of 41 goals in 2003-04 and then nearly matched it when she scored 40 in 2006-07.

In 2007-08, Hefford finished first in MVP voting ahead of Montréal's Marie-Philip Poulin and Mississauga's Jennifer Botterill.

At year's end, Canadian Women's Hockey League coaches and captains were asked to recognise the top players in the league. They were not allowed to select players from their own team. The Most Valuable Player was voted by the seven captains, the Outstanding Rookie was voted by the seven coaches, while the Top Forward, Top Defender and Top Goal-tender were voted by the 14 coaches/captains. In each case, coaches and captains were asked to make a first choice (5 points), second choice (3 points), and third choice (1 point). The Central coaches/captains counted for 50% of the vote while the Eastern coaches/captains counted for the other 50% of the vote.

Coaches were also asked to select Central and Eastern All-Stars. Coaches were asked to make three selections per position (six first place, six second place, six third place) within their own division and one selection per position (six first place) from the opposing division. The voting points were weighted 60%/40% in favour of the coaches within the specific division. In other words, Central coaches had a greater say in recognising Central All-Stars while Eastern coaches had a greater say in recognising Eastern All-Stars.

Jennifer BOTTERILL

Jennifer Botterill won the scoring title in the inaugural CWHL season after scoring 61 points for the Mississauga Chiefs. She finished ahead of Jayna Hefford (58 points), Sommer West (48), and Marie-Philip Poulin (43) in the 2007-08 scoring race.

Angela James was a long-time member of the North York/Beatrice Aeros. She also played for the Hamilton Golden Hawks and Newtonbrook Panthers. She was a three-time scoring champion in the Central Ontario Women's Hockey League and the first-ever goal-scoring champion in the National Women's Hockey League. At the international level, she won four-straight gold medals at the Women's World Championships, leading Canada with 34 points after those first four IIHF tournaments. In 2008, she was one of the first women players inducted into the IIHF Hockey Hall of Fame.

TOP GOALTENDER

Kim ST-PIERRE

The Stars de Montréal's Kim St-Pierre was the Canadian Women's Hockey League's Top Goaltender in 2007-08. She finished second in the league with a 1.51 goals-against average as she helped the Stars finish first overall in the standings. She posted an 8-2 record with one shutout in 10 games. She also contributed two assists to the team's offence.

St-Pierre was selected the Top Goaltender ahead of Brampton's Cindy Eadie and Mississauga's Sarah Love.

TOP DEFENDER

Becky KELLAR

The Burlington Barracudas' captain Becky Kellar was the league's Top Defender in 2007-08. After winning a gold medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics in Torino and then sitting out the 2006-07 women's league season, Kellar returned as steady as ever in 2007-08. She scored two goals, 10 assists and 12 points in 28 games.

Kellar was selected the Top Defender ahead of Brampton rookie Molly Engstrom and Montréal veteran Nathalie Déry.

TOP FORWARD

Jennifer BOTTERILL

The Mississauga Chiefs' Jennifer Botterill was the league's Top Forward in 2007-08. She finished first in the league with 37 assists and 61 points, winning the inaugural Angela James Bowl for the scoring title. She also finished second in goal scoring (24), second in points-per-game average (2.35), and third in Most Valuable Player voting.

Botterill was selected the Top Forward ahead of Brampton's super scorer Jayna Hefford and Montréal's rookie Marie-Philip Poulin.

PERFORMANCES OF THE WEEK

In the first week of recognition, the Phénix du Québec's goaltender Christine Dufour put up the CWHL Performance of the Week. After Québec lost 2-8 on Saturday night (Dufour was not in net), Dufour made 51 saves in a 2-1 victory over the Burlington Barracudas on Sunday. The win ended Québec's incredible 15-game losing streak. Down the stretch, Québec won seven of its final 13 games, but missed the playoffs on the final day of the season.

OUTSTANDING ROOKIE

Marie-Philip POULIN

Had she not missed a month of the season playing for Canada, the 16-year old Marie-Philip Poulin might have done a lot more than just lead all rookies in points. The league's best points-per-game producer, Poulin had a 16-game scoring streak for the course of her shortened season. She enjoyed three five-point games. She finished fourth in the league in goals (22) and points (43).

Along with being the unanimous selection for the league's Outstanding Rookie, she was an Eastern All-Star and league All-Rookie Team forward. She also won the monthly Top Scorer honour in October after scoring 12 goals, seven assists and 19 points in just seven games.

Poulin finished first in Outstanding Rookie voting ahead of Brampton's Molly Engstrom and teammate Leslie Oles.

Playoff composition

The division champions each earned an automatic bye into the second round of the playoffs. The next four-best teams, regardless of division, qualified for the first round of the playoffs. The playoff schedule can be found on page 34.

Note: Burlington and Ottawa were unable to schedule two games for their first-round playoff series, so they played one game only.

Note: The semi-final winners (Brampton and Mississauga) also qualified for the 2008 Esso Women's Nationals. The two CWHL finalists joined the two Western Women's Hockey League finalists (Calgary and Minnesota). The Chiefs won the 2008 championship. Statistics from the Nationals are not included in this book.

ROOKIE STATUS

To be recognised as a rookie, a player (skater or goalie) cannot have played 10 games in a preceding season nor 3 or more games in each of any two preceding seasons. A goalie also cannot have played six full games in a preceding season nor 2 or more full games in each of any two preceding seasons.

A season consists of an elite women's league regular season, be it from the Canadian Women's Hockey League, Western Women's Hockey League, or the defunct National Women's Hockey League or Central Ontario Women's Hockey League. A rookie player must also be 25 years or younger as of 1 September of the current season.
